

INVITATION

A Panel Discussion on an Alternative Name of Physical Education in the East Asian Cultural Sphere

October 29 (Sun), 2023 | Online Event | 01:00 – 03:30 PM (KST UTC+9)

Place : Chungnam National University, Daejeon, Korea

Online : Zoom Meeting (with simultaneous interpretation in English, Chinese, Japanese, and Korean)

We cordially invite you to the Panel Discussion on An Alternative Name for Physical Activity in the East Asian Cultural Sphere, which has become an international issue.

We intend to hold a presentation and discussion by inviting scholars (experts) in this field to bridge the gap between terms like sports science and kinesiology in East Asia. The objective is to explore an alternative name for physical education in the region as the first discussion in preparation for the 2025 World Congress. We look forward to your active contribution and participation in this discussion. For additional details, please click here.

Thank you.
